Title: Know Your Rights: Rights of an Accused in India

The College is pleased to announce an upcoming webinar for students of LL.B. and B.A. LL.B.

In today's legal landscape, understanding the rights of an accused is not only essential for academic excellence but also for developing a strong foundation in criminal law practice. This webinar aims to provide clear and practical insights into key legal safeguards available to an accused under Indian law, including rights at the time of arrest, bail provisions, protection against self-incrimination, and the principle of double jeopardy.

The session will focus on simplifying complex legal concepts through real-life examples and case-based discussion, enabling students to connect theory with practical application. It will also serve as an excellent opportunity to strengthen your preparation for examinations, moot courts, and future legal practice.

Webinar Details:

- Date: 30/04/2026
- Time: 1 PM
- Mode: Online
- Resource Person: Varun Rai Saxena (Asst. Professor)

All students are strongly encouraged to attend and actively participate in this enriching academic session.

Warm regards,
